INTRODUCTION OF THE VILLAGE OF LOUTULIM

Loutulim is a large Village of South Goa District of Goa State. It is an important settlement in the Salcete Taluka.

Etymology :-

Loutulim derives its name from Lovó-tollem, coined from Konkani words-Lovó, a type of grass and Tollem, a pond-since that grass used to grow abundantly around the pond. In Konkani, the local language, the Village is known as 'Lottli' and its native inhabitants are known as 'Lottlikars'.

History:-

The Village community was based around the temple of Shri. Ramnath. A new temple of Shri Ramnath was built recently at the same spot. In 1586 the Jesuits built the Church of Salvador do Mundo (Saviour of the World) in order to look after the spiritual needs of the Christians.

Today Loutulim has a mixed population of Christians and Hindus. Many of the Hindus are of Saraswat Brahmin lineage.

Location:-

Loutulim is located approximately 10 Kms. from Margao, the Headquarters of South Goa District. It has beautiful scenic surroundings, green hills, fields and the River Zuari flows along one side of Village. Loutulim is surrounded by villages of Quelosim, Verna, Camorlim, Raia and Borim. Loutulim is easily accessible by road from Margao,Ponda and Cortalim.

Architecture:-

Loutulim is one of Goa's delightful villages, with lush green paddy fields and tranquil village roads that lie under a canopy of forest trees.

At the centre of the village lies the majestically painted Church of Saviour of the World-one of Goa's most impressive Mannerist Neo-Roman style churches built in 1586.

There are Chapels of Our Lady of Rosary in Carvota, Our Lady of Mae de Deus in Devote, Our Lady of Milagres at Vanxem, St. Sebastian on Monte Hill, St. Benedict and St.Bento at Orgao and St.Joseph in Rassaim.

Shri Ramnath Temple was the original temple dedicated to Lord Ramnath in the village of Loutulim and had been set up by Goud Saraswat Brahmins , the temple was reconstructed at it's original place and Linga prathistapana was done in the year 2011.
